

BLB&G Senior Counsel Catherine van Kampen to Speak at ABA International Law Section Event

January 25, 2023

BLB&G Senior Counsel Catherine van Kampen will speak at today's virtual event, hosted by the American Bar Association (ABA) International Law Section in partnership with New York University (NYU)'s School of Law. This LLM Careers Week event will feature Catherine, along with other distinguished legal professionals, in a lively discussion on building a professional profile, opportunities abroad, areas of law that LLM students should focus on this year.

Catherine's law practice concentrates on class action settlement administration, and for the past 17 years Catherine has assisted BLB&G in complex litigation and litigation management. Since attending law school, Catherine has been deeply committed to public and pro bono service to underserved communities. A committed humanitarian, Catherine was honored as the 2018 Ambassador Medalist at the New Jersey Governor's Jefferson Awards for Outstanding Public Service for her international humanitarian and pro bono work with refugees. Catherine was also honored in Princeton, New Jersey, by her high school alma mater, Stuart Country Day School, in its 2018 Distinguished Alumnae Gallery for her humanitarian and pro bono efforts on behalf of Yezidi and Christian women and children afflicted by war in Iraq and Syria.
