Brittney Balsler is an associate practicing out of the New York office prosecuting securities fraud, corporate governance, and shareholder rights litigation on behalf of the firm's institutional investor clients. Brittney is a member of the New York County Lawyers Association, where she serves on the Supreme Court and Abortion Rights Joint Task Force.

She is a member of the firm's case development and client advisory group, in which she, as part of a team of attorneys, financial analysts, and investigators, counsels public pension funds and other institutional investors on potential legal claims. In addition to her casework, Brittney is a member of the firm's Diversity Committee, as well as a member of Beyond #MeToo: A Working Group on Corporate Governance, Compliance, and Risk. Comprised of diversity-inclusion experts, litigators, and academics, B#MT is dedicated to understanding the root causes of workplace harassment, discrimination, and misconduct and making corporate America a better and more inclusive place for all of us to work.

Prior to joining the firm, Brittney was an associate practicing broad-based litigation encompassing white collar defense, internal investigations, civil litigation, and FINRA arbitrations at Bracewell LLP. Brittney is a graduate of Notre Dame Law School, where she was president of the International Law Society and served as the managing notes editor for the Journal of Legislation.
